Feedback from people assisted

The Post Distribution Monitoring (PDM) is an exercise of a specific cash distribution, conducted independently from the cash distribution exercise itself. It is designed to collect information related to the objectives of CBI (e.g. access to basic needs and services or shelter construction), coping strategies and spending habits, and the quality of the distribution process. PDM findings will be used to verify compliance with agreed procedures and detect irregularities. The results are fed back into the programme cycle in order to improve the way CBIs are designed, calculated and delivered. In general, in Slovakia, the PDM results shows that 62% of beneficiaries had their living conditions improved due to cash assistance given. Additionally, 93% had their financial burden decreased because of the cash assistance, and therefore reducing the feeling of stress.
